From the Pastor's Desk

Reformed and always reforming, as in the church reformed and always reforming. The idea of reformation was paramount to John Calvin and as such it is paramount for our lives and ministries as well. I serve on the Princeton Theological Seminary Alumni Association Executive Council and on campus in Princeton, New Jersey we just hosted the Re:Union. The theme of this year's reunion; "2017 marks the 500th anniversary of Martin Luther nailing his 95 theses on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany. This historic event changed the way we view religion and has been recognized as the beginning for the Reformation."

Nearly all of the events and seminars were focused around the topic of Reformation. During the faculty panel discussion Dr. Geddes Hanson (a professor Emeritus, who taught courses in pastoral care, congregational life and congregational leadership) said, "People thought that the reformation was permission to split," and that "Schism was thought to be a greater sin than heresy." Even years ago the church wrestled with what it means to be a church in the midst of disagreement. During our current social and political climate it seems appropriate for us ponder what reformation means for the church, and perhaps more so, what reformation means for our lives full well knowing that reformation is a process and not an event. Reformation is personal.

Pastor April on KDWA
11:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Sometimes it is helpful to start with questions and try to identify the right question first and then reflect. For example, do you love the idea of justice or love the doing of justice? What is enough? How can we rise above the fear of not being enough? How can we love our neighbors if we don't know our neighbors? Can there be greatness without goodness?

These are a few of the questions I left Princeton with; I hope together we can try to discern the correct question and then move forward in discerning how to continue to be hands and feet of Christ in the world.

Grace to you, and peace,
April

Our Bible Study of Favorite Bible stories continues on Wednesdays in June. We will have a light supper starting at 6 PM and then read a story in the Bible. We are currently reading stories from the New Testament. Each session is an independent study so you do not have to have come previously. Please come join us for a time of fellowship and fun as we explore some of the many stories in the Bible.

Recap

Thank you to all who donated merchandise, provided baked goods, or helped in anyway with the set up and take down. We finished another successful garage sale with the net results earning the church $1,784, after all expenses were paid. Of that amount $502 came from the bake sale and lunch proceeds. Well done!!

We received the grant we sought from the Presbytery. Now it is time to begin to put those ideas into action. If you are interested in participating in a committee tasked with organizing grant funded guest musicians, talk to Pastor April.

If you are interested in participating in the Rivertown Days Parade on Sunday July 23rd, please let a Session member or Pastor April know, or sign up on the sheet in the Fellowship hall. We are planning to order t-shirts this year.

As the summer is rapidly approaching and people leave for vacation, the church still has bills to pay (phone, electricity, garbage, radio broadcast, copier, pastor, water, etc) so PLEASE make sure you are current on your pledge or send a little extra if possible. Many, many thanks for your generosity and stewardship!

Cole Christian participated in the Make a Wish gala. His painting was sold at the silent auction for $2150.

A Poem for Pentecost

William Blake (1757-1827)

Unless the eye catch fire,
The God will not be seen.
Unless the ear catch fire
The God will not be heard.
Unless the tongue catch fire
The God will not be named.
Unless the heart catch fire,
The God will not be loved.
Unless the mind catch fire,
The God will not be known.

When you strip it of everything else, Pentecost stands for power and life. That's what came into the church when the Holy Spirit came down on the day of Pentecost.

Session Minutes for April 4, 2017

A stated meeting of the Session of the First Presbyterian Church of Hastings, MN was held at 6:30 PM in the Fellowship Hall of the church on April 4, 2017.

The meeting began at 6:35 PM when Moderator Reverend Dr. April Davis Campbell lit the Christ Candle to remind us that we are on holy ground and that we have come to listen for God's word. Brenda led devotions. She related a story about a man who dragged food scraps into the woods and ended up attracting crows. Not exactly what he was hoping for, but even crows have to eat. Not all of us are loveable, but all of us still need to be fed. We need to show love to people who are hard to love. The meeting was then opened with prayer.

Elders Present:

Class of 2017: Grant Tiefenbruck, Dave Hume

Class of 2018: Dennis Brown, Mary Crawmer

Class of 2019: Brenda Reiter, Karen Altpeter

Also present: John Christian, Kaitlin Christian

Clerk's Report: The March Session Minutes were approved as submitted. The minutes from the Special Meeting of the Session on April 2, 2017 were also approved.

Treasurer's Report: At this point in time we are still doing well.

Foundation Report: The Foundation met and agreed to take a significant amount of money off the table. Bob Albright was going to investigate some options for moving money.

Pastor's Report: April was in Nebraska in March. Her father looked good. He seems to be able to do his own personal care. We shall celebrate Palm Sunday and confirm three young people. The "Passion" will happen on Thursday. The ecumenical community Good Friday (April 14th) Service will be at 5:30 PM at St. Elizabeth Ann Seaton. There will be a Synod meeting at the end of April. April will be going to the monastery in Indianapolis in May. She'll also be at a reunion at Princeton Seminary in May. We need to set plans for the grant activities. Holy Yoga training will begin later this summer and there will be an immersion week in November. Music series could be set up for once per month during the fall. Perhaps we could work with the liturgical artist during Advent.

Presbytery Meeting: Presbytery met at Oak Grove Church in Bloomington. J. Herbert Nelson, the Clerk of the General Assembly, was a very inspiring speaker. The next meeting of Presbytery will be on May 9th at the 1st Presbyterian Church of Rochester. Dennis was elected commissioner and maybe Grant will attend, too.

Deacons: Perhaps they will provide feedback about communion on Sunday.

M/S/C to receive all of the reports above on the consent agenda.

Committee Reports

Building and Grounds – Dennis – New sign. M/S/C to ask the Foundation for money to purchase a new sign for the front of the church (~$6,000). There will be a meeting of Session on June 13, 2017 at 6:30 PM at the church.
